1,000 Hiring Managers Said What Now?

We just did a massive research project where we asked over 1,000 hiring managers, warehouse managers, and plant managers a simple question.

We asked... "What is your biggest PAIN point"

And the most common response BY FAR was eye opening...

GETTING TEMPORARY STAFF TO SHOW UP.

More than 60% of hiring managers, warehouse managers, and plant managers are struggling to get temporary staff to show up on time and regularly.

Am I the only one that thinks this is a problem?

As crazy as that number seems... it kinda makes sense doesn't it?

As hiring managers, sometimes we get complacent with our staffing providers and sometimes think all staffing agencies are alike.

But it can be tough to know where to start when looking for a new staffing agency.

That's why we offer a free discovery call to any hiring manager that needs to find out how a quality staffing partner can ease pain points for them.

We even have a free case study for you too!
